"Goodness Sakes!"

isn't that a lovely stove!" exclaimed a lady in our store a short time ago, as she paused in front of one of the Michigan Stove Co's latest pattern cook stoves, and proceeded to critically inspect the same. The examination was satisfactory in every particular. It always is. You make no mistake in buying the kind we handle. It's the poor kind you "burn your fingers" with.

A large congregation gathered at the Disciple church last Sunday to listen to the discourse on Sabbath Observance. Rev. Ware is a concise and forcible speaker and presents the aim and work of the National Union in a manner calculated to interest all classes of people. There is no question that something must be done, if we would preserve the Christian Sabbath, and with it the mental, moral, and physical well-being of the American people.

The 18th annual convention of the State Firemen's Association, held at Hillsdale was a very interesting one, and every possible courtesy was extended to the visitors, the business houses being decorated in their honor. The delegates from Paw Paw were A. T. Stevenson and Fred Lord, and the former received the honor of being elected 1st Vice-president of the Association. W. P. Perry of Hillsdale is the newly elected president and the next meeting will be held at Grand Haven.

Yesterday morning a member of I. B. Conner's family finding the door of the furnace-cellar open, mistrusted that all was not right, and a little investigation showed that some one had entered the house in the night and helped themselves to a silver watch lying on the mantle in the sitting room where a lamp was burning. Nothing else is missing and Ike is congratulating himself on the fact that it was his least valuable watch. Also that he removed a large roll of bills from his pocket to a safer place before retiring. Several hundred dollars having been paid him on the street just before dark, he thinks this was probably the booty sought.

The American is the very comprehensive title of a new weekly published at St. Joseph, Mo., by T. F. Lyons, son-in-law of Mrs. W. R. Hawkins, with the high sounding motto, "Principle not Party." It is another independent paper and the editor takes occasion to remark, "We will cling to our independence, or leave our measure for our coffin." Perhaps 'twould be as well to have the measure on hand.

An announcement card from Portland, Oregon, brings us the news that Miss Etta Mae Huntley, a former typist in this office, was married to Leroy B. Johnson of that city on May 12. This is what generally happens to the enterprising maidens who apply to themselves Horace Greeley's advice to young men, and is decidedly fortunate for the latter. We extend our congratulations to the newly wedded pair with the hope that their matrimonial sea may be as sunny and free from storms as that placid ocean near which they have moored their bark,—the beautiful Pacific.

Rev. A. C. Jones will preach the Memorial sermon at the M. E. church next Sunday morning, and the music will be furnished by the various choirs of the village and our male quartette. As Monday is the day on which the members of the Grand Army invite all to assist them in publicly commemorating the death of their comrades, so Sunday is the time on which the patriotic citizens take charge of the exercises that testify their appreciation of the heroic dead. Brodhead Post having been invited to participate, will assemble at the armory at 9:30, and march to the church in a body.

In the Grand Rapids Herald of May 22 we note an interesting interview with Fred. Pelham, last year's agent for the Redpath Bureau, in which he states that this bureau last year booked $40,000 worth of entertainments in this state alone, $7,000 of which came from Detroit, Ann Arbor, and Grand Rapids. Mr. Pelham gives Michigan the credit of being the banner lecture state, and says the lecture bureau affords the people opportunities to hear celebrities that they could not possibly have without this agency, since very few speakers could afford to hire a special advance agent, pay all his expenses, and run the risk of drawing an audience.

We are in receipt of the advance sheet of "Under The Oaks at Jackson" in process of publication by the Bankers' Art Publishing Co. of Detroit. A work that shall give a comprehensive idea of the principles and men of the Republican party from 1854 down to the present, with a full discussion by illustrious statesmen of the tariff, reciprocity, silver coinage, and all subjects bearing directly upon the principles of the Republican party, will be invaluable for reference and one that would make a great addition to the library of every staunch Republican. The leading article will be from the pen of Michigan's great "War Governor", Hon. Austin Blair.

All lovers of music may expect a treat on next Saturday evening, May 28, at which time the Eolian Ladies' Quartet of Hillsdale College will give an entertainment in the Opera House for the benefit of the A. C. F. society of the Free Baptist church. The following clipping from the Adrian Daily Times shows what was thought of their concert there:—"The Eolian Quartet were deservedly compelled each time to make a second appearance. They are personally prepossessing, sang sweetly, and introduced some novel vocal effects, fully justifying the favor with which they were received." Tickets on sale at Longwell's for 25 cts., and board open for reserved seats at the same place on Thursday at 2 p. m. without extra charge.

Wedding Bells.
The silvery peal that chimes out the close of the care-free days of youth and ushers in the joys and responsibilities of the married state, yesterday rang out its notes in the pleasant home of I. A. Whitman where at 11:30 a. m. his daughter Sadie, was united in wedlock to Chas. Nelson Hathaway, only son of A. Hathaway.

It was a quiet home-wedding, and as the bridal party were ushered in by the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Kittie Fitch, they were attended only by the father and mother of the bride and the parents of the groom, who stood on either side of the church underneath which they passed.

The nuptial knot was securely tied by Rev. G. P. Linderman, after which all repaired to the dining room and partook of a sumptuous dinner. Before taking the two o'clock train for Muskegon, there was ample time for viewing the numerous and elegant presents. On their return the young couple will take up their residence at father Hathaway's.

Both of the high contracting parties are well known and popular members of our young society, and we wish them all possible joy and prosperity.

Miss Dean of South Haven visited school Monday.

At the end of this month we are promised a list of "star scholars" who have neither been absent nor tardy.

The Senior Class of our high school has been so fortunate as to secure the Rev. J. A. Johnston, pastor of the First Baptist church of Kalamazoo, to deliver the annual sermon before the class next month.

We are told that negotiations are in progress looking to the securing of Walter Buckhout as singer at the graduation exercises this year. Those who heard Mr. Buckhout several years ago, are hoping that he may come again.
